Table of Contents

Extensions ............................................................................................................................................................................ 3
Extensions

Some libraries and frameworks have been developed for integrating simpA with other technologies:

simpA-WS

This is a library which make it possible to effectively and easily design and build service-oriented applications based on Web-Services using simpA approach